MEMORIAL HALL

At the University of North Carolina. From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.

Memorial Hall of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, formally dedicated and first used on the occasion of this year's Commencement exercises is, perhaps, the largest audi-torium in the Southern States, certainly larger than any other at an educational institution; and it is believed to be the only Memorial Hall of the same character at any American seat of learning except Harvard. The building was made architectually pe-culiar in order to be secure the best acoustic effects. Its dimensions are 136 feet by 128 feet and 52 feet from floor to rafters, there being no ceiling. and there are no pillars. Its capacity girl, as he called, waiting for him, and no one was like papa Tom. She had no one was like papa Tom. She had a great influence over Tom. He was acle at Salt Lake City, its acoustic CRAWFORDVILLE, GA., July 15, 1885. Editor Democrat :- For the past ten years I have been suffering with rheumatism in the muscles of my right shoulder and neck. During this time I have tried various remedies both patent medicines and those prescribed by physicians. Last summer I commenced using B. B., and could see an improvement by the time I had taken one bottle. I have been taking it at intervals since last summer, and can say it is the best medicine for rheumatism I have ever tried. I take pleasure in Frecommend it to the public.
